ACCELERATING BOTSWANA'S MINING & ENERGY LEADERSHIP THROUGH STRATEGIC GROWTH & INDUSTRY TRANSFORMATION — DRIVEN BY CRITICAL MINERALS, STRATEGIC COMMODITIES, INVESTMENT, SOLAR & RENEWABLES, AI & TECHNOLOGY

The Botswana Mining & Energy Conference & Exhibition (BME) is the region's largest international critical minerals, commodities, investment, renewable energy, solar, battery, storage, and related technologies show.

As the global energy transition accelerates, delivering a clean-energy future depends on secure access to critical minerals, resilient supply chains, and a strategic shift away from fossil fuels toward lower-carbon, hydrogen, renewable, and nuclear energy systems. These minerals are essential to national security, economic prosperity, and the advancement of high-tech industries — including semiconductors, batteries, electric vehicles, aerospace, defence, wind turbines, and solar technologies.

This landmark event highlights the critical mineral & strategic commodities, mining investment trends, exploration opportunities, precious, base & bulk metals, financing models, ESG and sustainability goals, commodity forecasts, and technological innovations that are shaping the new era of mining, energy and industrial transformation.

Position your company at the forefront of a mining and energy sectors undergoing structural transformation to support the global transition to a green-energy future. Join 80+ exhibitors from across the mineral resources ecosystem and meet 1200+ key decision makers, qualified buyers and industry professionals actively seeking projects, technologies and solutions that will accelerate mining momentum in Botswana and beyond.

Held in Gaborone, Botswana Mining & Energy Conference & Exhibition (BME) connects governments, mining companies, investors, energy firms, technology providers, banks, industry associations and global stakeholders through personalised networking platforms, 1-2-1 meetings, and high-level social events designed to unlock new partnerships, investment conversations, high-value opportunities and strategic dialogue across the BME platform.
